COMMAND INFORMATION TO OPEN NEW OFFICE OUTSIDE SCOTT AIR FORCE BASE

Company to Expand in Support of DoD Customer Base

Vienna, Virginia – January 6, 2009 – Command Information, the premier provider of next generation network services, today announced that it is expanding its presence to better serve its Department of Defense (DoD) customers with new office space in O’Fallon, IL. The new facility, which will immediately accommodate 20 employees, will support Command Information’s clients at Scott Air Force Base and the Military Surface Deployment and Distribution Command (SDDC).

“Command Information is expanding to meet the direct needs of our government customer,” said Mike Proper, Vice President of Business Development and Sales, Federal Division, Command Information. “Our new office will enable us to respond more rapidly and better service their changing requirements. Command Information is committed to providing the DoD with efficient and practical solutions to support mission critical activities.”

The new office is located at 785 Wall Street, Suite B, O’Fallon, IL, 62269. Its staff of 20 will be comprised of existing employees who will re-locate to the new area along with new hires. Command operates a total of six offices nationwide, in support of both commercial and government clients.

“Customer service is our number-one priority,” said Proper. “We understand that in order to provide the best service possible, we must be nearby. We look forward to developing long-standing relationships with Scott Air Force Base, SDDC, and the entire greater St. Louis region.”
